Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 21 August 2003.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

- 6) ☐ Other: _____

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-70 have been cancelled and new claims 71-75 have been added via preliminary amendment filed 8/21/03.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 71-75 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 22-26 of U.S. Patent No. 6631358. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant claims correspond to the system claims 22-26 and differ only in the form and not scope of the invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of the application for patent in the United States,

2. Claims 71-75 are rejected under 35 USC 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Hardesty (US Pat. 6105865) referenced hereafter as Hardesty.

As per claim 71: Hardesty teaches a method for facilitating consumer savings, (see title) comprising the computer-assisted steps of :

determining with a computer that a consumer-initiated transaction is a covered transaction pursuant to a savings agreement with the consumer under which specified funds will be directed on the consumer's behalf to a specified savings vehicle at a financial institution, (refer at least to col. 3 and 4: Retirement Charge Card (RCC), L 52-62) covered transactions pursuant to the agreement being determined according to at least one of the time at which a transaction occurs and the transaction amount (col. 5 L 42-67, calculation of rebate, col. 6 L 1-5); and automatically directing specified funds on the consumer's behalf to the specified savings vehicle at the financial institution pursuant to the agreement (col. 5 L 42-67, transfer of funds).

72. The method of claim 71, comprising determining in a computer whether a credit card number appears in a data structure that identifies credit cards which are subject to savings agreements (col. 6 L 1-5).

73. The method of claim 71, comprising determining in a computer whether a smart card identifier appears in a data structure that identifies smart cards which are subject to savings agreements (see col. L 12-18, smart card).

74. The method of claim 71, comprising calculating in a computer a percentage of the consumer-initiated transaction (col. 5 L 64-67).

75. The method of claim 71, comprising calculating in a computer a service charge to be paid to at least one financial institution (col. 5 L 50-59, costs of transaction).
